

CALL FOR ENTRIES FOR THE ANIMATES ONLINE CONTEST OF AMATEUR* ANIMATION FILMMAKERS

If you're a fan of animation and have tried (or would try) to tell a story using this tool of expression, here's a good opportunity:

The AniMates Festival online call for entries invites short animated films on one of the following themes:

- A. MONDAY MORNING
- B. WHEN I'M BORED...

The main prize of the competition is an iPad 9 and participants are welcome to attend the AniMates Festival in Cluj-Napoca, 11-13 October. The festival aims to connect animation schools and animation lovers from Europe (with a special focus on Hungarian and Romanian ones).

The competition is open to short films using any animation technique: hand-drawn, computer-drawn, collaged, photographed stop-motion or other preferred animation technique. The recommended length is between 30 seconds and 3 minutes.

You can submit your work (or your team's work) in mp4 format until the 30th of September 2024 at the following link: <https://forms.gle/UHeKuUaNd133dxZv9>
